

CANYON CAMERA CLUB

The Canyon Camera Club, started in 1948, takes its name from the "Grand Canyon in the East," Letchworth State Park. The CCC usually meets the first and/or third Wednesdays, Sept. through May, in Perry, NY at the Arts Council for Wyoming County.

The CCC is one of eighteen Niagara Frontier Regional Camera Clubs located in western New York, Pennsylvania, and southern Ontario, Canada. For information on the NFRCC and to find a club near you, please see: www.nfrcc.org

Paul Fehringer of Wild Spirit Education with Black Falcon

Wild Spirit was formed in 1995 as a Wildlife Rehabilitation Center. Over the years, Wild Spirit became one of the premier Wildlife Rehab Centers in the Southern part of Western New York (Delevan, NY). In 2010 Wild Spirit changed its name to reflect a new focus on education and discontinued doing much of the rehabilitation.

Free Admission

But donations to help with expenses gratefully accepted.
